

Following observations/points should be kept in view to review the new Taleemi Calendar

-  Previous distributions method of syllabus as in Taleemi calendar has also been kept in view during the revision of the new Taleemi calendar.
-  The latest addition of Punjab text book board has been consolidated to revise the new Taleemi calendar, so for the division of chapters, topics and number of pages should be corrected.
-  Syllabus of 8th class should be finished in December according to the PEC examination schedule. Month of January is reserved for the revision and examination preparation.
-  Subject wise instructions are given on the relevant pages for the effective teaching learning process.